

Sunday
All day	Workshops
Evening	Welcome Function
Monday
Morning	Keynote—Hon Eugenie Sage 1— Conservation genetics, genomics and ecology
Afternoon	2a— The contribution of citizen science 2b— Conservation in response to environmental change 3a—Aligning western sciences with Mātauranga Māori for better conservation outcomes 3b—Celebrating 250 years of advances in botanical science & conservation since Banks & Solander
Evening	Public lecture Dinner on your own
Tuesday
Morning	Keynote—Melanie Mark-Shadboldt
	Concurrent
	4a—Decoding the green: combating plant blindness 4b—Ecological restoration 4c—Recovery of threatened plants: success stories?
Afternoon	5—Recent progress in taxonomy and phylogeny of Australasian plants, I 6—Recovery of threatened plants: success stories? 8—Poster session NZPCN AGM Nancy T. Burbidge Medal presentation and address—Barry Conn
Evening	7—Recent progress in taxonomy and phylogeny of Australasian plants, II ASBS AGM Book launch, cash bar & canapes Conference dinner
Wednesday
All day	Field trips
Evening	ECR—Informal social networking evening, drinks and dinner (RSVP required)
Thursday
Morning	Keynote—Kevin Thiele
	Concurrent
	9—Hybridization: an ongoing dilemma for conservation 11—What is the fossil evidence for extinction, adaptation and diversification in the assembly of the floras of the SW Pacific?
Afternoon	10—Australasian biogeography The Decadal Plan and the future of taxonomy in Australasia 12—Phylogenomics
Evening	Wrap up—student awards; final announcements Australasian Virtual Herbarium (AVH) informal meeting (all welcome) Public panel discussion